Word is the tool to convert to a different format, but I didn't find any application that I could just do this all on my own without moving forward. And that's when I came across this tool. After downloading and installing the program, I was taken through a guided tutorial that taught me all I needed to know. So I clicked the "Convert" button and instantly I had a Word file! I am very excited and happy about this app and can't wait to share it with all my friends and colleagues. As the saying goes "Be prepared!" If you are just starting on your adventure, you can jump straight into the action with a simple two player mode that supports both Adventure and Challenge modes. If you like to experience the challenge mode but don't want to worry about choosing your map, you can choose the global map mode and the computer will randomly pick a map and all players will start on that map. Finally, if you prefer to start with a single map and move on from there, you can start a map and bring the other players on that map with you!
