I never knew there could be a VST version of.Song Lyrics My head feels up, my tuchus is lower, Can't feel my heels My white shoes are so beautiful I have that feeling I don't feel no pain Oh, I can't feel no pain Hear me calling out For my old friend Heaven is too hot, oh Get me to Heaven Now I can feel my heart Is racing I look inside Whoa-oh Are you falling into my heart I never though' it would be like this I'm calling out for the old friend He left me lonely and blue I'm having the time of my life I'm calling out for the old friend He left me lonely and blue I'm having the time of my life The nature of the magnetic field inside an MRI scanner. MR images of heads and body sections of volunteers and cadavers were obtained using three different techniques: spin echo (SE), double-echo steady state (DESS), and fast spin echo (FSE). The magnetic field inside the MR scanner was measured at various locations with both calibrated Hall probes and a network of amorphous silicon Hall detectors. A series of images obtained with the conventional SE sequence. The images obtained with other MR sequences such as FSE and SEEC (which shows images similar to those obtained with the SE sequence), were found to be consistent with those obtained with the SE sequence.
