16 Ill. App.3d 693 (1973) 306 N.E.2d 689 MARIE BIEHL, Appellant, v. EDWARD R. BIEHL, Appellee. No. 72-226. Illinois Appellate Court ¶ Second District. January 31, 1973. *694 Charles E. Hervas, of Chicago, for appellant. William M. Genrich, of Rockford, for appellee. Reversed and remanded. Mr. JUSTICE GUILD delivered the opinion of the court: This is a divorce proceeding in which appellant seeks reversal of an order of the Circuit Court which grants the appellee's petition for a change in custody. The parties were married on May 28, 1957, in Illinois. There were two children born of this marriage, the son born September 13, 1958, and the daughter born August 16, 1962. Since the time of their marriage, the parties have lived in Peoria, Illinois. The appellee resides in Winnebago County, Illinois, and the appellant resides in DeKalb County, Illinois. The record reflects that the appellant and appellee were married in a common law marriage prior to their marriage in 1957. The parties entered into a valid ceremonial marriage in an Illinois church on May 28, 1957. The record further shows that during the marriage the parties were separated on several occasions, and the wife was granted temporary periods of custody of the children. On August 5, 1967, the wife was granted a divorce in a case entitled "Edwin Biehl, Plaintiff v. Marie Biehl, Defendant," and the decree for divorce recognized and provided for the sole custody and care of the children. The record further shows that after the divorce, the appellee had the original petition for change in custody proceedings on his desk from August 5, 1967, until March 1968. The record also shows that the appellee was permitted visitation rights after the divorce was granted. The petition to change custody was filed by the appellant on January 12, 1970, alleging her intent to move to Racine, Wisconsin, with the children. In her petition, the appellant alleges that the appellee has been guilty of improper conduct, and that he has been an unfit person to have the custody of the children. As a specific example of such conduct, the petition recited that after the divorce, the appellee engaged in
