FIFA is a football simulation where you take on the role of a legendary player in real-world competitions, which change dynamically based on your decisions. FIFA is a football simulation where you take on the role of a legendary player in real-world competitions, which change dynamically based on your decisions. How are FIFA seasons? There are 4 seasons per year. Each season starts with a boot camp, which will last for 10 minutes, and then you will start your training session. When you complete your training session and win a match, you will be promoted to the next season. When you lose a match, you will be relegated to a lower division. A season is made up of 32 matches. Each match is 40 minutes long, although you get 5 minutes for every goal you score. You will also get 5 minutes to make a substitution. There is also a bonus period of 20 minutes for every goal you score. A season is made up of 32 matches. Each match is 40 minutes long, although you get 5 minutes for every goal you score.
