Krita: Alternative in the Linux Graphics World Krita was inspired in part by GIMP, but it was made from the ground up to be a powerful and robust alternative for serious graphic designers. Its developer, Krin, is a talented freelance graphic designer who uses and supports the software. There is a strong expectation on the Linux graphics world that Krita be widely installed and used as a viable alternative to the proprietary, Adobe-owned, G

Q: Confusion in solving complicated equation Please help me to solve this equation. I tried to solve it using Wolfram alpha but it did not help me. Kindly help me to solve this, $\frac{\sqrt{x^2-y^2}}{x^2+y^2} = \frac{\sqrt{1+4z}-1}{\sqrt{1+4z}+1}$ A: As mentioned in the comments, since $x^2+y^2=2z$, we can substitute into your equation and get: $\frac{x-y}{x+y} = \frac{2z-(x-y)}{x+y}$ This gives us: $2x^2-2y^2=2z^2-2z^2$ Therefore, we have: $2x^2=2z^2$ Which is a nonsense answer. The answer you found on Wolfram Alpha is correct. Online shopping has changed the way people buy many things. People use the Internet to look for all sorts of products such as clothing, makeup, shoes, food and much more. The main problem of online shopping is that people find it difficult to compare products at their fingertips. The online shopping community is increasing and it has brought people to all sorts of product categories. People only focus on a few websites when they are trying to find the best prices for all their products in one place. These websites help people save money and they also get to make use of the websites' features easily. The trend shows that online shopping has become the most popular form of online shopping and has changed its user base. There are still people who prefer going to the shops and checking the products because they make sure that they will buy all the products that they need. However, the online shopping community is constantly increasing and there will not be any change anytime soon. Even though online shopping has become popular and has revolutionized the way people shop, there are still many challenges facing the online shopping community. Most people do not know the prices of a wide range of products that they need. Sometimes people have problems with the websites and they find it difficult to make use of the websites. It is also a problem when someone needs to buy a large amount of products. Click here to subscribe to our newsletter There are many online shopping platforms that people can choose from.
